TITLE: New business development public hearing records

DATES: 1954-

ARRANGEMENT: Chronological

ANNUAL ACCUMULATION: 0.50 cubic feet.

DESCRIPTION:

These records document public hearings conducted by the agency in compliance with UCA 64-13a-14 (2003) and 28 USC 1761(2003), as a prerequisite to developing a private sector partner business and when the agency is starting a traditional program with potential of grossing an excess of $100,000 annually. Hearings are conducted to minimize or eliminate competition with local businesses who create similar products or provide services similar to those proposed or planned by the agency, and to generally determine that a possible new business venture would not create a hardship for any local private sector business. The hearings provide a public forum for the agency to present proposed business enterprises designed to use an inmate workforce and receive feedback from the community. Included are meeting minutes, agendas and hearing announcements.
