TITLE: Journals

DATES: i 1882-

ARRANGEMENT: Chronological.

DESCRIPTION:

These journals serve as a record of the action of the legislature during session. They constitute the published minutes of the State House of Representatives from the territorial period to the present. House and Senate journals were kept beginning with the creation of the territory in 1851, but were kept separately after 1882. Minutes from joint sessions are recorded after 1890; before that, they were recorded only in the Senate minutes.

Daily entries cover a standard order of business. Place, date, roll, and prayer are noted before proceeding with business. Membership rolls are included. Citizens' petitions for various actions; monetary claims; and communications from agencies, groups, or individuals are recorded. Committee reports recommending passage or rejection of particular legislation are provided. The process of enacting legislation via bills and resolutions is the most frequent business recorded. Other agency reports, memorials, invitations, etc. may also be entered in the record during particular periods.

4

TITLE: Working bills

DATES: i 1896-

ARRANGEMENT: Chronological by legislative session, thereunder alphanumeric by bill type and number.

DESCRIPTION:

This series documents the legislative process in the House of Representatives. The series contains the working copies of House bills, claims (through 1915), petitions (until 1921), memorials, fiscal reports of state agencies (1897 only), and resolutions. The working copy includes the bill as introduced and any amendments made to it; the bill's progress through committees and votes is logged at the end of the bill. The final official version of the bill is not part of this series unless it was vetoed by the Governor, returned to the Legislature while still in session, and the Legislature failed to override the veto. Bill, in the broad sense, refers to bills, resolutions, memorials, etc. In the narrow sense they are those documents a member of the Legislature desires to have made into a Utah law. Claims to the state were for money due an individual or group. Memorials are pleadings for federal action, usually made to the U. S. Congress. Resolutions are position statements which do not have the weight of law. Petitions were initiated by citizens desiring the introduction of particular legislation.
