TITLE: 1880 Census Lists of Persons

DATES: 1880.

ARRANGEMENT: Numerical by enumeration district, thereunder alphabetical by surname.

DESCRIPTION:

This series contains a List of Persons (census form [7-392.]) for each of five 1880 Federal Census enumeration districts in Weber County. Individuals in each district are listed alphabetically by surname along with their color, sex, and age. The covers of several of the booklets are missing, but those that remain have notations that indicate that they were filed with the County Clerk. Precincts covered in the five booklets include Ogden 2nd and 3rd (municipal) Wards, Huntsville, Mound Fort, Lynne, Marriott, Riverdale, and Uintah.

These lists were created as part of the procedure outlined by the federal law authorizing the 1880 census and were used to determine how much each enumerator was to be paid. According to The History and Growth of the United States Census (Washington: Government Printing Office, 1900), p. 61-62:

"the enumerator was directed to forward the original schedules, duly certified, to the supervisor of his district, but before doing this, he was required, under the terms of section 6 of the act of April 20, 1880, to make and file in the office of the clerk of the county court or in the office of the court or board administering the affairs of the county to which his district belongs, a list of the names, with age, sex, and color, of all persons enumerated by him, which he shall certify to be true, and for which he shall be paid at the rate of 10 cents for each 100 names."

TITLE: Articles of incorporation record books

DATES: 1871-1961.

ARRANGEMENT: Chronological

TOTAL VOLUME: 34.00 reels.

DESCRIPTION:

These volumes record copies of Articles of Incorporation filed with the Weber County Clerk by newly organized corporations. The registers were kept as the official copy which was available for public use. The actual articles of incorporation record the following: names of the incorporators and their places of residence, the length of the corporation's duration, the pursuit of business agreed upon, amount of stock each shareholder receives, description of stock classes, number and kind of corporate officers, and the number of directors necessary to transact corporate business.

Under current Utah law and the laws of the territorial legislature, individuals desiring to incorporate, were to file and record articles of incorporation with their respective county clerk. These agreements specified the nature and place of business, amount of stock to be issued, terms for officers, etc. The clerk in turn issued certificate of incorporation and recorded the final articles of incorporation in these record books. The series ended in 1961 when registration of corporations was transferred to the State government and the Division of Corporations was created.

TITLE: Articles of incorporation record books of LDS church wards

DATES: 1882-1884.

ARRANGEMENT: Chronological.

TOTAL VOLUME: 2.00 reels.

DESCRIPTION:

This series records copies of Articles of Incorporation filed with the Weber County Clerk by LDS Church Wards. The record books were kept as the official copy available for public use. The actual articles of incorporation record the following: names of corporate officers, names of ward members, and oaths of office. The Articles of Incorporation state that members of the ward "desired to become a body corporate, under and in accordance with the existing laws of Utah Territory, and had met for that purpose." The law of the Utah Territory stated "that any number of persons associated together for religious, social, scientific, benevolent or other purposes...when pecuniary profit is not their object...may incorporate themselves as provided in the Act (Laws of Utah, 1878, chap. 18, sec. 1).

Under current Utah law and the laws of the territorial legislature, individuals desiring to incorporate, were to file and record articles of incorporation with their respective county clerk. These agreements specified the nature and place of business, amount of stock to be issued, terms for officers, etc. The clerk in turn issued a certificate of incorporation and recorded the final articles of incorporation in these record books.

TITLE: Incorporation case files

DATES: 1871-1961.

ARRANGEMENT: Numerical by case number, thereunder by date filed.

ANNUAL ACCUMULATION:

DESCRIPTION:

Incorporation case files contain at a minimum the original articles of incorporation and any subsequent amendments to foreign and domestic corporations. Some files also contain notices to pay licensing fees and taxes, oaths of office for corporate officers, annual reports, correspondence, or other miscellaneous documents. Case files are created during the length of a corporation's duration. The case file is generated when companies incorporate within Weber County and serve as evidence of "due incorporation of the corporation [UCA 16-2]." Articles of incorporation constitute a contract between the state and the corporation, between corporation and stockholders, and between stockholders and state. The articles of incorporation record the following: names of the incorporators and their places of residence, the length of the corporation's duration, the pursuit of business agreed upon, amount of stock each shareholder receives, description of stock classes, number and kind of corporate officers, and the number of directors necessary to transact corporate business. TITLE: Incorporation case files of LDS church wards

DATES: 1882-1903.

ARRANGEMENT: Alphabetical.

TOTAL VOLUME: 4.00 reels.

DESCRIPTION:

These case files contain Articles of Incorporation filed with the Weber County Clerk by LDS Church Wards. Articles of Incorporation were required to be filed with the County Clerk and State to ensure that laws pertaining to corporations were adhered to. The Articles of Incorporation state that the members of the ward "desired to become a body corporate, under and in accordance with the existing laws of Utah Territory, and had met for that purpose." The law of the Utah Territory stated " that any number of person associated together for religious, social, scientific, benevolent or other purposes...when pecuniary profit is not their object...may incorporate themselves as provided in this Act (Laws of Utah, 1878, chap., 18, sec., 1). The Articles of Incorporation record the following: names of corporate officers, names of ward members, and oaths of office.

Under current Utah law and the laws of the territorial legislature, individuals desiring to incorporate, were to file and record articles of incorporation with their respective county clerk. These agreements specified the nature and place of business, amount of stock to be issued, terms for officers, etc. The clerk in turn issued a certificate of incorporation and recorded the final Articles of Incorporation in the case file.
