DATES: 1908-1914.

ARRANGEMENT: Chronological within each of two sections.

ANNUAL ACCUMULATION:

DESCRIPTION:

This abstract of instruments filed by the county clerk is divided into two sections. The first section, called "instruments filed," lists documents filed. The majority are oaths of office, articles of incorporation and marriage license applications, but also included are official bonds, liquor license bonds, certificates of nomination for political candidates, notices of revocation of charter, notices of annulment of right to do business, bills of sale, and notices of tax levy. Each entry indicates the name of the corporation or individuals who filed the documents and identifies the date and location filed and recorded. The second section, which relates to the clerk's function as clerk of the district court, is a record of land entries, proofs, etc, made before the court. Each entry includes the name of the person making the entry, the date, kind of entry and a legal description of the land involved. All entries are desert entries or homestead applications.

DATES: 1891-1961.

ARRANGEMENT: Alphabetical by company name

ANNUAL ACCUMULATION:

DESCRIPTION:

Incorporation Case Files contain at a minimum the original articles of incorporation and any subsequent amendments to corporations. Some files also contain notices to pay licensing fees and taxes, oaths of office for corporate officers, annual reports, correspondence, or other miscellaneous documents. Case files are created during the length of a corporation's duration. The case file is generated when companies incorporate within Washington County and serve as evidence of "due incorporation of the corporation" [UCA 16-2].

Articles of incorporation constitute a contract between the state and corporation, between corporation and stockholders, and between the stockholders and state. The articles of incorporation record the following: names of the incorporators and their places of residence, the length of the corporation's duration, the pursuit of business agreed upon, amount of stock each shareholder receives, description of stock classes, number of kind of corporate officers, and the number of directors necessary to transact corporate business. The series ended in 1961 when registration of corporations was transferred to the State government and the Division of Corporations was created. Even though the series officially ended in 1961, several case files and documents were added to the series after that date.

TITLE: Water claims and breeders certificates

DATES: 1880-1896; 1916-1926.

ARRANGEMENT: Chronological

ANNUAL ACCUMULATION:

DESCRIPTION:

In 1880 the territorial legislature passed the first act establishing and regulating water rights (Laws of the Territory of Utah, 24th session of the Legislative Assembly, Chapter 20). The legislature appointed the selectmen of each county to act as a water commission to generally oversee the distribution and use of water within their county. The water commission evaluated water resources, adjudicated all claims for water use, and issued water certificates validating rights to use water and specifying the amount. The Washington County recorder's Deed Record Book J, which is entitled "Water Claims and Breeders Certificates," contains the minutes of the meetings of the Washington County Water Commission. After the minutes, the county recorder used this book to record breeders certificates (Dec 1916-Apr 1925). These certificates describe bulls and verify that they are purebred.
