APPRAISAL:

Administrative

This retention is based upon the administrative needs expressed by the office. After careful analysis it was determined the cards have outlived their original purpose and should not be continued. It appears they have been completed by employees for tradition rather than an expressed need. The decision has been made to discontinue the card at the end of the 1988-89 school year. The cards for the period 1936-1969 are kept because they represent the only source of information on employees salaries.
