TITLE: Governor's awards for excellence grant files

DATES: 1992-1993.

ARRANGEMENT: Numerical by application number

TOTAL VOLUME: 3.00 cubic feet.

DESCRIPTION:

These records document grants received by schools in recognition of overall excellence. The grant applications are reviewed by the Utah State Office of Education personnel. These files include an award application from the local school district and screening sheets completed by reviewers of the applications. The application includes identification of the school and nominating committee; demographic information about the school's students and community; a narrative discussion of demographic data which may be of interest to the reviewers; school mission statement; and statements about the following: students as full partners in learning, parental and community involvement, effective instruction and curriculum with measurable outcomes, a positive learning climate in the school, satisfaction of teachers and other staff with the school, technological application in the school, and other factors which make the school excellent and deserving of the award. The screening sheets indicate the reviewer's evaluations in each of the areas listed in the application on a low-middle-high rating system, the total score for the project, and the initials of the reviewer. Also included is the amount awarded to recipient schools and correspondence.

DATES: 1987-1991.

ARRANGEMENT: Chronological, thereunder alphabetical by school district

TOTAL VOLUME: 0.70 cubic feet.

DESCRIPTION:

In 1987, the Utah State Legislature initiated a program which would provide funding on a competitive basis for the following sorts of programs: reducing non-teaching activities that encumber teachers; increasing learning opportunities for students; and minimizing, stabilizing, or both, the costs of the current instructional system. In addition, districts could apply for administrative technology funds to be used for developing a technology master plan, technology inservice for staff, or on-site technology assistance for classroom teachers.

The files include approved applications and associated documentation, as well as mid-year and final reports on the projects which have received state funding. The information includes correspondence regarding the committee which is to review the applications; a list of the applications received including the district, title, amount approved, and notes; a C-20 Awarded Funds Approval form which requests funding for the approved programs; a Card 4 which shows the distribution of funds among the school districts in Utah; and abstracts of the projects. Another section of the files pertain to school districts. This includes correspondence between the Utah State Office of Education and the schools or districts; copyright release forms; applications for funds, showing applicant agency identification, project director, proposed funding source, a budget; narrative summaries of project, conformity with program rules, statement of need basis of evaluation and evaluator, objectives, and costs by category.

The final report includes title of project and school district identification, how the project did or did not meet its objectives and time schedule, summary of evaluation information, potential for statewide or districtwide use of the program, narrative outline of the project to date, plans for continuation, and financial reports.

TITLE: Year-round school grant files

DATES: 1985-1991.

ARRANGEMENT: Chronological, thereunder alphabetical by school district

TOTAL VOLUME: 1.50 cubic feet.

DESCRIPTION:

In 1985, the Utah State Legislature created the Year-Round Schools grant program in response to rapidly rising enrollments and limited resources. During the program's existence (to 1991), appropriated funds were distributed to school districts on competitive applications under State Board of Education Rule R277-404. This funding was intended to help school districts develop and implement year-round schedules and alleviate the need for extensive construction expenditures on larger facilities.

These files include applications by school districts for grants, identifying the school district, an estimate of the grant funds necessary to complete the project, a statement of need, project objectives and activities, projected completion dates, and a budget which indicates amounts of funding to come from the grant and from the local school board; financial reports which indicate the amount of grant funds allocated, expended, encumbered, returned and on balance for the following categories: salaries, employee benefits, purchase of professional and technical services, inservice activities, supplies and materials, equipment, evaluation costs, travel, indirect costs restricted, and totals; correspondence between Project Assistance Services and the school or district; final reports on the use of grant funds which include identification of the school district, the district's assessment of the impact of the grant, obstacles encountered, adequacy of funds, attitude shifts, need for technical assistance to complete project, and a narrative report evaluating the success of the program; and progress reports identifying the school district with similar information to the final report.
