TITLE: School Fee Waivers Task Force administrative records

DATES: 1992-2015.

ARRANGEMENT: Chronological

DESCRIPTION:

In 1992, a task force on school fee waivers was organized to investigate the issue of school fees and fee waivers for students who are impecunious. The task force was organized in response to school districts' expressed financial difficulty following a judicial order on October 15, 1992 that school districts must grant fee waivers to poor students. The records for this task force are maintained in a three-ring binder and include minutes, agenda, correspondence (primarily with school districts), and miscellaneous reference material.
