TITLE: Abatement applications

DATES:

ARRANGEMENT:

DESCRIPTION:

These records are used for granting exemption of property taxes for disability, aged, veteran status or extreme hardship. The actual numbers and types of abatements vary according to size of the auditor's office. These files contain applications forms completed by taxpayers requesting tax exemption of property tax. Includes applicant's name, address, birth date, age, social security number; the property serial number; name of county; a series of questions concerning financial situations; numbers of acres; computation of household income; the notarized signatures of applicant and applicant's spouse; all necessary supporting documentation; and action taken. Since abatement records are historically valuable, the retention of these records is dependent upon which records are created by the office.

STATE RECORDS COMMITTEE STATUS:

This retention has not been approved by the State Records Committee.

FORMAT MANAGEMENT:

The retention and disposition information on this schedule applies to the record copy which can be in any format. The record copy can include different formats. TITLE: Loan disbursements records

DATES: 1991-

ARRANGEMENT: Alphabetical by project name

ANNUAL ACCUMULATION: 0.70 cubic feet.

DESCRIPTION:

These records document the disbursement of funds from the State Community Impact Board (CIB). The CIB makes funds available that are "received by the state from federal mineral lease revenues . . . to be used for the alleviation of social, economic, and public finance impacts resulting from the development of natural resources in the in the state" (UCA 9-4-301 (1993)). The CBI makes low interest (one-half percent) loans available to "state agencies and to subdivisions which are or may be socially or economically impacted, directly or indirectly, by mineral resource development for: planning, construction and maintenance of public facilities, and provision of public facilities" (UCA 9-4-305 (1993)). The county commission requests funds for specific projects (i.e., multi-use building at the fairgrounds). If project is approved, funds are then deposited in a Trust Fund Account in a local bank. The private contractor submits bills to the Trust Account. These records include copies of contractor billings and a bank disbursement report showing the amount and purpose of the disbursement.
