County recorders' copies are considered evidence with the same effect as the original. (Utah Code, 17-21-14, 2000). Military discharges contain a wide range of personal information, as well as military service and discharge information. Most veterans brought their papers to be recorded soon after discharge. However, in some cases years elapsed between the date of discharge and recording. This is particularly true for World War I veterans whose discharges are scattered throughout this series.
