TITLE: Official bond record book

DATES: i 1898-1916.

ARRANGEMENT: Chronological

DESCRIPTION:

This volume consists of forms completed by the Millard County Recorder regarding each elected and appointed county official required to post a bond.

Recorded information includes the name of the bonded individuals (principal and sureties), the town or city and county in which the individuals reside, the amount of the bond, the election date, the office to which the official was elected or appointed, the official's signature, the notary's signature and seal, a statement that the constitutionally mandated oath of office has been administered by a notary public, and an oath by the sureties that they are residents and freeholders within the state and worth the sum of the bond. The county recorder then dated and signed the form. Only 238 of 481 pages have been used. One bond is recorded out of sequence on the end leaf.

ARRANGEMENT: alphabetical by section, township, and range

DESCRIPTION:

The twelve volumes lettered alphabetically A through L on the spine represent the original abstract section books of Millard County. They contain the historical record of land ownership by providing "a true chain of title." They were copied and corrected by the WPA Historical Records Survey in 1940.

Information is recorded under the following headings: township, range, section, all or part, government lot, line number, book where recorded, page, date (month, day, and year) of instrument, date (month, day, and year) and hour of filing, cancellations of incumbrances, grantor, grantee, estate conveyed, kind of instrument, if dower released, how many witnesses, stamp duty paid, if properly signed, if properly acknowledged, consideration, and remarks (a legal description of the property, boundaries, etc.). Included in the Waddell's Index to Names on Abstract Record are the names of the grantees and grantors, the book, the page number, and the line number where the abstract is recorded.

There are also three abstract section index volumes. These record information under the following headings: township, range, section number, abstract volume, and line number.

A master index to both sections and townsites is also located with this series. This lists only the township, range, section number, and book and page.
