DATES: 1890-1899.

ARRANGEMENT: Chronological and alphabetical
DESCRIPTION:

Ogden City kept death registers to record information about deaths that occurred in Ogden. Information in the registers includes decedent's name, residence, when and where born, age, color (black or white), death date, cause of death, name of attending physician, and remarks. These death certificates document all deaths occurring in the State of Utah as required by UCA 26-2-13 (2009). In 1905, a state registry system of vital statistics was established at the State Health Department with local registrars. All certificates created before 1905 are only maintained at the local health department and prior to 1978 some local registrars may not have reported all deaths. Since 1978, all originals are maintained at the State and copies at the local level. The information recorded includes the deceased's name, gender, date of birth, race, age, county of death, address, birth place, citizenship, marital status, name of spouse, social security number, occupation, and parents' names; cause of death; if an autopsy was taken; if accident, suicide, or homicide caused death; place and time of death; disposition of the body; name and address of mortuary or crematory; and signature of person certifying death.

ARRANGEMENT: Chronological by reporting date or roughly by death date.

DESCRIPTION:

Ogden City began keeping a record called "Return of a Death" in January 1900. These record books include a full page for each decedent which contains the following information: decedent's name, color, sex, conjugal condition, date of death, date of birth, age, occupation, birth place, name and birthplace of parents, cause of death, place of death, last residence, length of time at last residence, and place of interment. This record not only includes persons who died in Ogden City, but also persons who died elsewhere but were transported to Ogden for burial. After the state began keeping death certificates the Ogden office substituted copies of death certificates in place of death returns in their record books. Ogden City death certificates are not exact copies of death certificates issued by Vital Records, but they contain the same information.
