TITLE: Council minutes

DATES: 1935-

ARRANGEMENT: Chronological by meeting date.

ANNUAL ACCUMULATION: 0.10 cubic feet.

DESCRIPTION:

Like other traditional town councils in Utah, the Orderville council consists of a mayor and four council members who are responsible to exercise the community's legislative and executive powers (Utah Code Unannotated, 1991, 10-3-101). Council meeting minutes summarize the discussion at council meetings and report actions taken by the council or assignments made. Entries for each meeting include the date and place of the meeting and the names of those present. The Orderville town council appoints town officials, levies taxes, licenses local businesses, provides police and fire protection, and promotes community development. It provides or contracts for services and utilities and maintains a culinary water system as well as town roads and bridges.

TITLE: Water system development files

DATES: 1935-1958.

ARRANGEMENT: Chronological by date.

ANNUAL ACCUMULATION:

DESCRIPTION:

These files document the construction of Orderville's water system. When Orderville was incorporated in August 1935, stockholders of the Orderville Water Company transferred their water shares to the new town to create a community water system. The town borrowed money from the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works (WPA) for its construction. The files include the articles of incorporation of the Orderville Water Company, transfer slips from the Orderville Water Company stockholders, related correspondence, ordinance authorizing construction of the water system, billings, reports, bid documents, change requests, equipment purchases, and a Department of Health's engineering survey of Orderville's water supply system.
