SERIES: 82753

TITLE: Redemption certificates

APPRAISAL:

Administrative Historical

The County Treasurer General Records Retention Schedule (1/10/88) indicates that redemption certificates should be destroyed after 5 years. This retention is applied to those certificates from 1942 to 1945 because they are only a receipt and have been determined not to have historical value. Those 1896-1923 are entirely different and contain information not available elsewhere. They document the process of selling property for taxes and owners redemption at the last possible moment.
